Value of Professional
Associations

- TML
- TPCA
- IACP

Is Your Chief a Member of TPCA or IACP?
- 45% of all TML city's chiefs are not members

Where does most of your city's major risk come from: FD, PW, or PD?

How do you collaboratively work with your chief, minimize PD risk, and further leverage your police department?

- First the how and then the why

The "how to"

The "how to" blueprint

"Slip" the Silo	Networking
Succession Planning	Professional Development
Best Practices	Training
Additional Benefits

"Slip" the Silo

- Siloed chiefs/agencies fail to evolve and get left behind:
 - Disconnected from trends, legislative initiatives, standards, best practices...
 - Navigate challenges and critical incidents alone or late in getting assistance
 - Waste precious time reinventing the wheel
 - Talk, vent, share, consult

Greater the network, greater the success!

Networking

- Think, Act, and Lead like a Chief
 - ENGAGE with other chiefs (Proverbs 27:17)
- Improve emotional intelligence (EQI)
- Lessons learned and best practices for navigating sensitive situations
 - Alternative solutions to issues

Identifying and developing new leaders

Succession planning

- Ensures organizational continuity and stability
- Retains top talent
- Safeguards institutional knowledge
- Improves efficiencies during transitions
- Provides for sound leadership pipeline and expanded networks

Instrumental in growing a stronger team

Professional Development

- Chief Mentorships
- TPCA Conference
 - Latest Technology & Trends
 - Networking
- Leaders are readers
- Formal Training
 - LECOP, LCC
